To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Revenue Department, Bombay.

Sir,

I have the honour of submitting my notes on the working of the Indian Registration Act XVI of 1908 during the calendar year 1918, together with the prescribed statistical statements (G. R., R. D., No. 8880 of 1st October 1902).

2. The Hon'ble Mr. F. G. H. Anderson was in charge of the Department during the year under report except from 12th September to 1st November, when Mr. A. M. MacMillan acted for him.

3. The total number of deeds registered is 311,718 against 280,092 in the year preceding. There is thus a striking net increase of 31,626 deeds or nearly 10 per cent. The increase is almost solely under deeds relating to immovable property, where it is 10·3 per cent. Registrations relating to movables show a decrease of 2·5 per cent. Wills and authorities to adopt show a rise by 332 deeds or 12·5 per cent over the last year's figures; but the total number of such registrations is only 2,421. The total value of immovable property affected is Rs. 30,40,52,381 against Rs. 22,75,54,120 in 1917; an increase of 33·5 per cent. The value of property affected by deeds relating to movables has increased by no less than 55 per cent, even though there is a fall in the number of registrations. These increases in total value are a natural result of the rise in the number of transactions and the fall in the purchasing power of the rupee. Whether real property has increased in value out of proportion to the general rise in prices, I cannot say.

4. The increase in the number of registrations relating to immovables is observed throughout the Presidency except in Kaira and Panch Mahâls in Gujarât, Kolâba and Ratnâgiri in the Konkan, and Thar and Parkar in Sind; and occurs under almost all heads, being much the highest, as is natural in a poor season, under mortgages.

The increase in Sind is very remarkable, amounting to 32 per cent, the maximum being 68 per cent for Nawâbshâh. It is to be ascribed to the unprecedentedly low inundation, resulting in a poor outturn of food-crops and the high prices of all the necessaries of life, also to the investment in landed property of a portion of the huge profits resulting from increased business activity, arising out of war conditions, in the great commercial centres such as Karâchi and Shikârpur, from the abnormal rise in the price of cotton and cloth, and from the increase in speculation. In Nawâbshah the staple food grain failed completely in a part of the district, and as the area in question does not produce cotton and the people are used to living comfortably, they raised money on their land.

In the Presidency proper, the increases are to be ascribed generally to similar causes, viz., poor crops, high prices, great business activity in commercial centers, and the investment in land of a portion of the abnormal profits derived from trade, industry and speculation, these causes operating with very diverse degrees of strength according to the circumstances of the different districts. The investment in land of enhanced profits derived from agriculture in recent years also operated in some districts. The maximum increase is 35 per cent. for Ahmednagar, where the failure of the monsoon was the prime cause.

The increase in Bombay City is due, observes the Sub-Registrar, to the growth of the industrial and commercial activities of the city and the extraordinary rise in the value of property.

These increases took place in spite of a severe and prolonged epidemic of influenza which, while it lasted, dislocated activity in transactions which come up for registration.

5. The decrease in Thar and Párkar, trivial in itself, but striking in contrast with the huge increases elsewhere in Sind, is undoubtedly due to the exceptional circumstances of that district, half desert, half irrigated by a perennial canal (the Jámrao). The people in the desert portion, the District Registrar remarks, raise money on their personal security when they require it, while the people of the Jamrao portion had plenty money owing to its being a cotton-growing area. Influenza also had its effect in keeping down transactions. The decrease in the Panch Mahals is said by the District Registrar to be due to plague and influenza and economic depression. The District Registrar of Ratnágiri thinks the decrease there is partly due to influenza, and partly to the exceptionally heavy recruitment for the army accompanied by the payment of substantial bonuses to the recruits. The decreases in Kaira and Kolába are very small.

1918 ...	311,718

6. The general movement of the Department for the last five years is given in the margin. It may be noted that the year under report is a record one in the history of the Department.

7. The income of the Department rose from Rs. 8,84,487 in 1917 to Rs. 10,64,356, an increase of Rs. 1,79,869. This increase is a natural result of the increase in value of the property affected, already commented on. The expenditure of the Department was Rs. 4,27,790 as against Rs. 3,84,452 in 1917, having increased by Rs. 43,338. The increase in expenditure is mainly due to the grant of war allowance, the expenditure on increased temporary establishment necessary for the increase in work, the re-organization introduced in Sind (G. O., F. D., No. 2506, dated 4th July 1918), and the cost of postage for returning deeds by registered post. The net surplus of the Department comes to about Rs. 6,37,000.

8. Noticeable features of the administration during the year are :—

(1) The consolidated form in place of the present W-1 to IV forms, referred to in paragraph 7 (4) of last year's report, has been submitted to Government for approval.

(2) The modifications in the present forms of Day and Cash Books, referred to in last year's report, paragraph 7 (5), have been sanctioned.

(3) The Sind scheme, referred to in last year's report, has been sanctioned (G. O., F. D., No. 2506, dated 4th July 1918), and introduced.

(4) A proposal to cancel rule 26 and reproduce the same under Act V of 1917 has been submitted to Government for approval.

9. Documents to the number of 467 were impounded as insufficiently stamped. Deficit stamp duty was recovered in 256 cases; in 111 cases the deeds were adjudged sufficiently stamped; and 100 cases remained undisposed of at the close of the year.

10. Eight hundred and eighty-eight unclaimed deeds of the aggregate value of Rs. 1,84,226 were destroyed under section 85 of the Act.

11. The Registrars of Parsi Marriages registered 632 marriages, out of which 475 were in Bombay. The number of marriages registered under the Special Marriage Act III of 1872 was 16. Of these, 12 were registered in Bombay, 2 in Ahmedabad, 1 in Poona and 1 in Sholápur.

12. Co-operative societies presented 4,066 deeds for registration against 4,083 in 1917.

13. 1,10,325 deeds were returned by registered post as against 68,184 in 1917. The system is gaining rapidly in popularity everywhere in the Presidency.

14. There were four prosecutions for offences under the Registration Act, one each in Ahmedabad, Thána, Poona and West Khándesh; and convictions were secured in all four cases. The Bombay prosecution reported in my report for 1915 is not yet decided as the accused has not yet been traced.

15. The appeal of the convicted Sub-Registrar of Khed in the Ratnágiri district, referred to in my last year's report, was dismissed and the Sub-Registrar was consequently dismissed from service. In the year under report there was a prosecution against the Sub-Registrar of Pátan, district Sátára, for offences under sections 420 and 161, Indian Penal Code; but he was acquitted.

16. The number of inspections of Sub-Registry offices carried out by various inspecting officers was adequate except that the District Registrars of Ahmednagar, Karáchi and Hyderabad inspected only 3, 2 and 3 respectively. The extra work which the circumstances of the year threw on Collectors no doubt explains the deficiency. My predecessor inspected 15 Sub-Registry offices and 5 Registry offices during the year.

17. The Head Assistant, Mr. V. G. Dighe, and the office staff have worked satisfactorily.

Your most obedient servant,

A. MACKIE,

Inspector-General of Registration,
Bombay Presidency.
